Monday	This week's spellings are door, every, everybody, even, eye, father, find, floor, fast. The sound we are practising today is oy - like boy. Miss Brenchley reading The Colour Monster.	In this lesson we are going to be exploring how the author creates an opening that wants to hook the reader in! You will need your story map that you previously created to help you.	In this lesson, you are going to be exploring 3D shapes. You will be counting the faces of different 3D shapes. Do any of the faces look like the 2D shapes we know already?	In this lesson we will be looking at the New and Old Testament of the Bible. This is the sacred text of Christianity.	As part of the beginning of Mental Health week, start your mindful experience with this Rainbow Breath video. This will help you to feel calm. You could draw your own rainbow afterwards.
Monday Support	This week I would like you to practice split digraph u_e. We have learnt this sound already, however I would like to make sure we know how to read and write words with this tricky sound in them. Watch this speed sound session.	Today we are going to start our new shared story Too Busy to Sleep. Before you start reading, have a look at the front cover and see if you can make a prediction about what is going to happen.	today we are going to be measuring objects using non standard units and using accurate language. You are going to need some toy cars for this lesson, if you don't have any then cut one out of paper.
Tuesday	In today's phonics, you are going to be reviewing the previous 5 sounds you have learnt.	In this lesson we are going to be looking at different story openings that hook the reader in! You will be looking at Little Red Riding Hood for this lesson.	In today's lesson you are going to be counting the edges on 3D shapes!	In this lesson, we will identify what online safety is. We will meet another one of my friends who needs a little help online. Then understand how to keep ourselves safe online. Finally you will create a catchy rhyme or slogan to help children remember how to stay safe online.	Today I would like you to try three of my favourite Koo Koo Kanga Roo dances!
Tuesday Support	Yesterday you looked at the split digraph sound u_e. I would like you to practice write these words: Flute Brute Prune Dude	Today I would like you to read the story again with a grown up. Remember to practice your red and green words before. Then answer these questions on Tuesday's lesson in your workbook	today we are going to be measuring objects using non standard units and using accurate language again. You will need your toy car from yesterday and something tinier than pasta pieces.

Wednesday	The sound you are focusing on today is i - like child.	In this lesson you will be focusing on writing a fantastic opening about your setting! There is lots of help on this video to show you how to write your opening, try to create something new and exciting for me to read!	Today you will be counting the vertices on 3D shapes. Use your knowledge of counting vertices on 2D shapes to help you.	In this lesson we will investigate how different sounds are made by different instruments. You will then be making your own!  Experiment - can you walk from a source of sound until you can no longer hear it? An adult could bang a spoon on a saucepot whilst you take steps away!
Wednesday Support	I would like you to keep practicing those four u_e words. Flute Brute Prune Dude Try the LOOK, COVER and then WRITE technique.	Hello, today I would like you to read the shared story Too Busy to Sleep for a third time. Then you're going to tell me what happened at the beginning, in the middle and at the end of the story.	We have learnt lots about measure so now it's time to consolidate our learning about capacity. You will not need anything to complete today's lesson.
Thursday	The sound you will be learning today is a - like paper.	In this lesson you will be writing your opening with an action focused moment! You will need a plain piece of paper that you can fold! This will help you think of some action words (verbs). You will then be using these words to write a super opening!	Today you are going to be sorting 3D shapes, you will need to know the properties of each 3D shape to help you with this. Use your previous learning to help.	Today we are going to be flying to Asia, which is the biggest continent! We will be looking into what the landscape is like, it ranges from rainforests to mountains to plains! We will also be looking at cute animals and yummy foods grown in Asia!	Can you join in the KIDZ BOP and dance along with them?  As part of mental health week, I would like you to have a go at The Box as part of mindfulness. This is a breathing exercise that is good to help regulate and calm you down, maybe you can try this after lunch!
Thursday Support	I would like you to keep practicing those four u_e words. Flute Brute Prune Dude Try the LOOK, COVER and then WRITE technique.	In today's lesson you are going to use your storyboard from yesterday to help you write 4 short sentences that explain what has happened in the shared story Too Busy to Sleep. You can either type this or write it on a piece of paper.	it's time to consolidate our learning about weight. You will not need anything to complete today's lesson.

Friday	In this lesson we will be focusing on the ow sound - as in snow.	This is the last lesson in this unit, you will be creating an engaging character for your opening - can you describe your character using adjectives?	Today you are going to be creating patterns using 3D shapes. To warm up your brains can you make a pattern using some objects at home?	At the beginning of the school year, we studied Pablo Picasso. I would like you to try this portrait activity. What Primary and secondary colours have you used to express yourself? Around your picture, I would like you to write 4 things about you that you love.	As the final part of mental health week, I would like you to engage with the Oak Academy video called 'Don't worry about a thing'. This will help you to recognise your anxieties or worries and what you can do about them.
Friday Support	Today, ask someone at home to quiz you on these four u_e words and see how many you can get right without looking. Send me in your answers and I would love to send you a SFA badge on Marvellous Me.	Today you are going to compete a book review that tells me whether you enjoyed our shared story and what your favourite parts were.	It's time to consolidate our learning about length. You will not need anything to complete today's lesson.
